March 4, 2025 – Students from the Tax Society at Makerere University Business School (MUBS) Jinja campus recently visited Luwerere village in Mayuge District as part of their annual community outreach initiative. Led by Club President H.E. Jovia Naluyima, who also serves as the Education Minister at MUBS Jinja campus, the visit was an opportunity for the group to give back to the local community. The students donated essential items such as food, clothing, and cash, providing much-needed support to the village, which brought joy to the community.

Mr. Ngobi Richard, the Chairperson of LC1 Luwerere village, thanked the MUBS Jinja campus delegation for their generosity. "May the Almighty God reward you abundantly," he said, acknowledging how meaningful the support was for the village.

The group also visited Arise Africa Christian International Secondary School, where they interacted with students on various aspects of well-being, both academic and personal. MUBS alumnus Mr. Izimba Munir encouraged the students to focus on their education and not be discouraged by their humble beginnings.

"There is time for everything," he said, urging them to trust in God and work toward self-improvement and family support.

In addition the students provided information about the academic programs offered at MUBS Jinja campus, encouraging students to consider enrolling in certificate, diploma, or degree programs to advance their education and career goals.

Hon. Jovia Naluyima, Club President, addressed the students, advising them to take their studies seriously and maintain a positive attitude. "Be sharp, active, and outspoken," she urged. "The world is not for the weak. As young people, be bold, disciplined, and work hard to face the world with vigor and positivity." She also emphasized the importance of showing respect to teachers and peers. The community outreach and school visit were a source of inspiration for both the residents of Luwerere village and the students of Arise Africa Christian International Secondary School, demonstrating MUBS students' commitment to giving back and inspiring the next generation.
