

MUBS Arua Campus Elects Mr. Moro Roy Maxwell as New Guild Prime Minister

Rt. HON. Moro Roy Maxwell

On March 21, 2025, MUBS Arua Campus held its eagerly anticipated election for the Guild Prime Minister, resulting in the victory of Mr. Moro Roy Maxwell. A second-year BBA student, Mr. Moro triumphed with 162 votes, surpassing his rival Manguci Davis, who earned 91 votes. The election marked a significant milestone for the campus, as students actively participated in the democratic process, showcasing their enthusiasm for leadership and campus development. In his victory speech, Mr. Moro expressed his heartfelt thanks to his supporters and emphasized the need for unity within the student body. "I am honored by your trust, and I promise to lead with dedication and integrity. Together, we will create a stronger and more vibrant MUBS Arua Campus," he said.

The MUBS Arua campus community eagerly anticipates the positive changes that Mr. Moro's leadership will bring. As the newly elected Guild Prime Minister, he is committed to fostering a collaborative atmosphere that benefits all students and enhances their overall experience.

Congratulations to Mr. Moro Roy Maxwell on his well-deserved victory. The entire MUBS Arua community looks forward to the bright future under his leadership.

Two Nominated For Prime Ministerial Post

On March 19, 2025, the MUBS Jinja Campus Electoral Commission, headed by Mr. Tuke Daniel, officially nominated two candidates for the post of Guild Prime Minister. The candidates were Abdul Waibale, a second-year student from the BBC program, and Ruth Ajambo, a second-year student from the BHRM program. In addition, candidates for the Guild Representative Council (GRC) were also nominated, with a variety of contestants from different academic programs. During the campaign, both prime ministerial candidates addressed their fellow students. Abdul Waibale thanked the student body for their trust and promised to work alongside them to make MUBS Jinja Campus a better place. "With your support, we can make MUBS Jinja Campus great," he
